Satış Danışmanı

Hakkımda

I graduated from Yeditepe University Management Information Systems department. During my education life, I worked as an internship and assistant in different departments. I am enthusiastic to learn new information and improve myself in this process in order to adapt quickly to the developing business world. I am aware of the effect of technology on production and follow its developments. I believe in team harmony in team work. I am confident in adapting quickly to teamwork.
