I graduated from Izmir Institute of Technology, Department of Urban and Regional Planning. Based on the experiences I gained in my education and business life, I can define myself as someone who loves to work, is open to new ideas and has a leadership spirit. Thanks to the experiences I gained in the field and office environment, I had the opportunity to develop myself in project management, strategy and business development. I would like to add value to you with my experiences in the short term.
